THE MATTER OF A SUCCESSOR NOW UNDER CONSIDERATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

THE WHITE PIGEON PASTOR SUES FOR DIVORCE AND REV. ALLEN IS ACQUITTED.

Vincent to Retire.

ing them very difficult.
"In my talk with Mr. Vincent he told me that his business was suffering by his remaining there, and he felt that he must resign. I can say nothing as to his successor.'

Allen N. Armstrong, of Cassopolis, who has been postmaster of that city for eight years, is believed to be the candidate of Gov. Warner for the wardenship of Jackson prison. That is practically regarded as insuring his election, as the other members of the board of control feel disposed to honor the governor's choice.

Mr. Armstrong was born in Redford, Wayne county, 40 years ago, and was an old school friend of the governor. He is also a friend of George W. Merriman, of Hartford, a member of the board. He has not been allied with any section or faction in connection with the prison, has good executive ability, and has the confidence of the administration.

White Pigeon Scandal.

Rev. George E. Allen, the traveling evangelist, who left White Pigeon suddenly at the demand of Rev. C. H. Anderson of the M. E. church, who charged him with improper conduct with Mrs. Anderson in the Anderson home, was acquitted by a church trial committee after a hearing in Wheeler behind closed doors. Mr. Anderson was not present, and the charges were presented in a letter from Dr. Barnes, presiding elder of the Niles district, who sent various newspaper clippings with his indorsement as to their truth.

Rev. Mr. Allen gave a graphic description of the visit of citizens to the Anderson home when he was notified

"I had been engaged in White Pigeon for just two weeks," he said, "and had heard no complaint whatever as to my conduct until the afternoon of Dec. 20. At 2 o'clock that day Messrs. Northrup, Pike and Peary, accompanied by Sheriff Fieldhouse and Rev. Mr. Anderson, came to the house and said they wanted to talk with me. They called Mrs. Anderson from the kitchen

'We will give you two just 40 minutes to get out of White Pigeon."
"I asked what the trouble was and they related the story told by Rev. Mr Anderson

"I asked what would be the consequences if I didn't go.

"Mr. Nrothrup said, "It is a case of Centerville jall and a scandal that will ruin you all over the state if you that it is best for all concerned that you go quietly."

"Then," said Allen at the trial, "they told me that there was no use talking back, that it was jail or home for me, so I hustled and caught the train. I wrote my presiding elder at once and he met me in St. Louis and 1 told him the whole story."

Mrs. C. H. Anderson, wife of Rev.
C. H. Anderson, when told of the acquittal of Rev. George E. Allen at Wheeler, said it was just as she had expected. She said the motive to Rev. Mr. Anderson's charges against herself and Mr. Allen had become apparent in a notice she had received of a suit for divorce Anderson had started at Centerville. She said emphatically that she would file a cross bill before the date set for a hearing, Jan. 30.

"Mr. Anderson's charges against myself and Rev. Mr. Allen were brought only for the purpose of starting the divorce suit," said Mrs. Anderson, "and if it had not been Mr. Allen it would have been someone else. I suppose, as he seems determined to have a divorce.'
